Position Summary

Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law seeks a dynamic, entrepreneurial, highly collaborative candidate with deep graduate admissions experience for the School's Assistant Dean for Admissions and Financial Aid role. This position will be responsible for developing and implementing the recruiting and admissions strategy, overseeing the admissions team and day-to-day operations, and driving enhancements in process, technology, and the use of analytics. The right candidate will be innovative, with a strong desire to look beyond what is traditionally done for creative approaches, a bias toward the use of data to drive decision-making, and the ability to develop plans and processes without an existing roadmap.

Villanova is a Catholic university sponsored by the Augustinian order. Diversity and inclusion have been and will continue to be an integral component of Villanova University's mission. The University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and seeks candidates who understand, respect and can contribute to the University's mission and values.

Duties and Responsibilities

* Oversee, direct, and evaluate the processing of all applications for Admissions and Financial Aid. Coordinate admission decisions and financial aid awards, including work study and emergency loans.

* Manage the scholarship budget. Allocate and award merit, leadership, and endowed scholarships to admitted and continuing students.
