faculty payrolls, graduate student assistantships and tuition waivers, faculty appointment letters, workload analysis, review and approval of contracts administrative agreements, space and capital planning, and special project and management studies integrating performance and financial data. The Associate Vice President serves as the principal liaison to Deans, University Offices (Legal, HR, IT, Budget, Finance, Procurement, Risk Management, etc.) and Research Foundation on all financial and data management initiatives. The Associate Vice President manages a $200 million budget and directly supervises five full-time staff members.

A Master's degree in business, finance, public administration or a related area and progressively responsible financial management experience in a higher education organization or closely related academic services area are required. The ideal candidate will possess strong leadership, personnel management, and budgetary skills; significant experience with enterprise information systems; and the ability to improve service administration through technology. In addition, candidates will recognize the inherent complexity of challenges in the higher education world while striving to promote sound portrayal of facts and analyses to inform and enhance decision-making opportunities and management choices; be a good listener who truly values the input of all stakeholders; and be committed to making informed decisions and creative problem solving. In addition, familiarity with evolving higher education financial models promoting accountability and incentives would be a plus.

Review of applications will begin March 13, 2018 and will continue until the position is filled.
