bias, prejudice and discrimination.

The Office of Student Affairs serves as a gateway to a variety of support services and resources designed to maximize the education experience and access for students.

Responsibilities

Program Management:

- * Oversee the Simmons Course: Explore and teach one section of the course
- * In collaboration with First Year Residence Life Coordinators, create and implement first year programming designed to support the College's first year retention goals
- * Create in-time and as-needed programs for first year students as issues or concerns arise
- * Collaborate with faculty, staff and students on programs designed for first year students
- * Provide supervisory oversight to departments within Student Affairs, working as a member of the Student Affairs team
- * Serve in the Administrator for on-call duty rotation
- * Review and improve first year programming with a focus on enhancing the first year experience
- * Manage special projects and duties as assigned

Advising:

- * Advise and work directly with students in their first year on issues which are social and emotional in nature
- * Refer first year students to campus departments and other resources designed to support their personal needs and goals
- * Provide goal-attainment guidance

Qualifications

- * Master's Degree in Higher Education Administration, Counseling/Psychology, College Student Development or other closely related field
- * 5 - 7 years' experience working in student affairs, advising and/or higher education setting
- * Comfortable working with individuals in difficult, complex, and ambiguous situations, personal or academic
- * Excellent writing and public speaking skills
