As part of a central development staff, the Director, Foundation Relations will work across the University with faculty, staff, and administrators to surface, conceive, and implement fundraising initiatives targeted at private and corporate foundations in support of the University's strategic objectives and fundraising goals. The Director will work directly with faculty and staff to understand, synthesize, and articulate opportunities to potential private and corporate foundation prospects. The Director is responsible for proactively identifying, cultivating, soliciting, and stewarding private and corporate foundations on a local, regional, national, and international level. The incumbent will manage a personal portfolio of private foundation relationships, which will include leading the planning and implementation of major fundraising efforts on behalf of faculty and staff constituents and in support of University priorities. This position will also assist, where necessary, on corporate proposals. Villanova is a Catholic university sponsored by the Augustinian order. Diversity and inclusion have been and will continue to be an integral component of Villanova University's mission. The University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and seeks candidates who understand, respect and can contribute to the University's mission and values.

Duties and Responsibilities

* FOUNDATION RELATIONS: Serve as lead development officer on a select portfolio of institutional prospects, managing all phases of the development process, including: Identification, qualification, cultivation, solicitation, and stewardship; perform extensive research and analysis of potential alignments; Keep updated on institutional news and giving trends; Proactively identify faculty projects & institutional initiatives that align well with private and corporate foundation interests; Initiate, design, execute, and evaluate strategies and tactics to expand the pool of private foundation prospects and create connections that lead to sustained relationships; Develop and execute strategies to engage private foundations based on capacity and alignment with University priorities and strengths to significantly grow funding coming into the University from private and corporate foundations; Identify and effectively leverage highly-placed internal advocates (e.g., Board of Trustees, Presidents Advisory Council, and Advisory Board members) that can help secure private and corporate foundation funding; In consultation with the Senior Director of Corporate and Foundation Relations, lead the development and execution of a strategic plan for private foundations that will fulfill the University's objectives and support the campaign; Based on this strategic plan, develop and deliver, as required, a customized presentation to senior University leadership.

* RESEARCH/PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT: Develop detailed plans to cultivate and solicit a targeted preset number of private foundations; Develop and execute a specified number of in-person institutional meetings with potential funders, either on-campus or at the funders location; Contact institutional officials on a regular basis to proactively explore areas of synergy, and introduce faculty
