transition into a bachelor's degree, earn a master's degree or certificate in a specialized field, advance in the workplace, or change careers.

Home to the first fully online degree programs at the City University of New York, CUNY SPS offers fully accredited degree and certificate programs for students who want the flexibility and convenience of online education. Now with 25 degree programs, 18 of them fully online, it has become the chief provider of online degrees at CUNY. Affirming its leadership in online education, CUNY SPS was ranked in the top 5% in the Nation in U.S. News & World Report's list of the 2018 Best Online Bachelor's Degree Programs.

The fastest growing School in CUNY, with enrollments increasing by over 30% in the last three years, CUNY SPS has over 3,400 students in its degree programs. The School has also seen unprecedented growth in its non-credit programs, with a portfolio of grant funded programs currently accounting for over $20 million. The School has an engaged Student Association, an active Alumni Association, and the CUNY SPS Foundation offers students an array of scholarship opportunities.

Reporting to the Senior Associate Dean for Strategy and Innovation, and serving as a key advisor, the Executive Director for Professional Education and Workplace Learning will be responsible for the overall leadership and strategic planning for the School's certificate and customized workplace learning programs. As a key member of the School's senior leadership team, the Executive Director will be expected to contribute broadly to all aspects of the fulfillment of the School's mission and growth.

Essential Functions:

- Develops strategies and plans for the creation of programs that meet the needs of working professionals, employers, and CUNY students.
- Provides leadership for senior - level program directors and 80+ professional full-time staff in the development and management of career-oriented, applied, and workplace instructional programs.
- Strategically evaluates potential program proposals to align with School's strategic direction, capabilities, and expertise.
- Leads the development of strategic partnerships and builds relationships with corporate, nonprofit, and government agency partnerships; directs the negotiation of partnerships.
- Collaborates with academic leadership, senior administrators, and faculty to design innovative, high-quality credit-bearing and noncredit bearing programs in new formats, including in the classroom and online.
- Promotes the use of effective strategies and technologies for enhancing student learning and improving workplace performance.
- Formulates and manages budgets, including the projection of revenue and costs, and revenue sharing arrangement with partners.
