holistic development of the student experience at Tufts by educating students about university expectations of behavior; enforcing university policy in a way that is fair, educational, and promotes safety; and by managing the student conduct program in a way helps students participating in the process learn from their life experience. The office partners closely with colleagues across the university (e.g., Residential Life & Learning, Campus Life, Tufts University Police Department, Office of Equal Opportunity, Career Center, Health Services, Counseling & Mental Health Services, Health Education, and Student Affairs at the SMFA) on a variety of related programs and initiatives. The Assistant Director of Community Standards is responsible for providing high quality educational and personal interventions to Tufts students who complain of, witness, or are accused of violations of University policies, and for providing support to the campus student conduct system.
