experience, while inspiring others through our work within the field.

The cornerstone of our mission and vision are our values, which connect to those of the University. We value individual growth and development, diversity and inclusion of thought and culture, collaborative innovation, mutual respect, integrity, and stewardship. These values guide us in the strategic pursuit to live our mission and envisioned purpose.

The Exploration Center within Career Discovery and Success supports academic and career exploration, planning, and decision-making. The Exploration Center is a foundational contributor to student success and provides essential programs and services to all students, along with specific programs, services, and academic courses for those students who identify as exploratory. As a leader within the Exploration Center, the Assistant Director, under the supervision of the Director and in coordination with other Assistant Directors, builds student services and programs while leading a team of professionals in setting bold goals and making innovative plans to establish intentional, outcome-driven student support. These leadership efforts foster opportunities for career and academic exploration, planning, and competency development. Through their work, the Assistant Director expands the coordinated support between exploratory academic advisors and career counselors, develops strategic engagement and communication across functional teams within Career Discovery and Success and across the Auburn University Advisor Caucus and Career Services Network to enhance exploration opportunities and the sharing accurate major and career information to support strategic departmental, division-wide, and university initiatives.
