Essential Duties and Responsibilities

Actively engage the Catholic Franciscan mission and identity of Marian University by modeling the Franciscan Sponsorship Values and honoring the legacy of the founding congregation through transformative education, unity in diversity, leadership through service, integrating faith and life, and institutional policies.

- Responsible for recruiting qualified student-athletes for college enrollment and participating in the football program.
- Under supervision by the head football coach, he is responsible for conducting football practices in season and during spring football.
- Responsible for any other aspect of the football program as determined by the head football coach.
- Responsible for monitoring the academic performance of the student-athletes in his charge in the sport of football.
- Serves as the Assistant Football Coach
- Other duties as assigned.

Requirements Include:

- Knowledge of and commitment to the mission of Marian University
- A bachelor's degree is required
- Previous collegiate playing or coaching experience is required.

Located within 10 minutes of downtown Indianapolis, Marian University is one of the nation's preeminent Catholic institutions of higher learning, and ranks in the Top 25 of US News & World Report's list of Midwest Region colleges, as well as Money magazine's list of Top 10 schools in Indiana "For Your Money". Marian University was founded in 1937 by the Sisters of St. Francis, Oldenburg, Indiana, and the Franciscan Values that the Sisters ingrained into the university's culture are still prevalent today. The university has experienced tremendous growth in the past 15 years under the leadership of President Daniel J. Elsener, including the opening of the Marian University College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2013 - the state's first new medical school in 110 years. Marian University's football team captured the NAIA national championship in 2012 and 2015. In 2016 and 2017, the women's basketball team won back -to-back NAIA nation championships. Marian University is also home to the most successful collegiate cycling program in the nation, which currently hold 42 national titles.

Review of applications will begin immediately and be accepted until the position is filled. Required
