Job Description

Director, Teacher in Residence Program coordinates all aspects of the ODU Teacher in Residence program, a grant-funded teacher preparation program operated in collaboration with partnering school divisions. This position is responsible for overseeing all aspects of student recruitment, admissions, advising, placements, and mentoring. In addition, the position is responsible for budget and grant management, program administration, program evaluation, stewardship of partnership school divisions, and ensuring that coursework and program design comply with university policy, state licensure regulations, division regulations, and CAEP accreditation standards. The Director is responsible for seeking, securing, and maintaining grants to fund the program. The Director is expected to collaborate with faculty and other partners to develop and maintain an innovative, effective, and high-quality preparation program.
