JOB DESCRIPTION

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

The Vice President of Marketing and Communications has responsibility for visionary leadership in marketing, public relations, crisis management messaging, research-based messaging, and branding expertise for SUNY Erie Community College.

The Vice President oversees the entire marketing and communication effort including the development and implementation of a strategic marketing and branding plan. The comprehensive plan includes the coordination of all campus marketing efforts to increase student enrollment, manage external communications and the College's identity and image, and support fundraising among alumni and other prospective donors.

The Vice President is expected to work with the President, the Provost and with academic and administrative leaders across the college to market their programs and initiatives and to support the Advancement organization in fundraising and alumni relations.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

- Work closely and collaboratively with the President, the Cabinet, academic departments and administrative offices across the college, to develop and implement an integrated, proactive, comprehensive, marketing and communications strategy that enhances the brand and reputation of SUNY Erie;
- Work with the Provost, Vice President for Enrollment Management and the Divisional Deans to identify the most effective marketing strategy for growing enrollment at the College;
- Establish strong, sustained marketing partnerships and collaborations (internal and external) and lead annual marketing plan development efforts with key campus leaders.
