Job Description

The Butte-Glenn Community College District has opened its search for a Vice President for Student Services. The Butte-Glenn Community College District is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

We are seeking a dynamic colleague who shares our vision and has demonstrated experience in student services leadership. This position plans, directs, and evaluates all aspects of student services activities at Butte College. If you envision how these student-facing areas of the college can function in support of dismantling institutional inequities and creating a student-ready college, then I encourage you to apply. If you lead with a diversity, equity, inclusivity, anti-racism, and accessibility lens, please consider joining us. If you are willing to make bold decisions in support of student success and the college's mission, Butte College might be the place for you. Roll up your sleeves, work with us, and apply your expertise at our institution. We eagerly await your arrival!
