TENURE STATUS: This is a unique opportunity for individuals looking for flexibility in their career path. The Director of Research Data Services appointment can be tenured/tenure-track or non-tenure-track, depending on the qualifications and preference of the successful candidate. Tenure-track appointees must have the demonstrated ability to meet the requirements of a tenure-track position at the IU Libraries. (<https://libraries.indiana.edu/file/promotion-and-tenure-criteria-iub-librarians-pdf>).

RESPONSIBILITIES: Develop and implement strategies for delivering research data programming, resources, and services for students and researchers in alignment with broader initiatives across the Libraries and IU's research campuses. Provide leadership, direction, and vision for Research Data Services personnel and maintain a work environment that encourages development, engagement, and job satisfaction.

QUALIFICATIONS: Applicants are encouraged to communicate how their work and other experiences satisfy the minimum qualifications in ways that may not be obvious. ALA-accredited graduate degree in library or information science; candidates with an advanced degree in a relevant subject area and appropriate experience in an academic setting will also be considered. Minimum two years of experience directing or coordinating research data programs or services.

Preferred: Preferred qualifications are not required, and IU Libraries is committed to helping our future colleagues develop preferred skills.
