and Development will supervise, develop and assess a comprehensive residence education effort, including personnel development and civic engagement opportunities.

The Managing Assistant Director provides vision, leadership and motivation within the department under the direction of the Director of Residence Life. Responsibilities include managing student development programs for 2,000 students in multiple facilities; advising for multiple students or staff groups; representing the department on university committees and task groups; monitoring staff and committee budgets and expenditures; and overseeing departmental safety and security programs. The Managing Assistant Director provides leadership for the departmental assessment program, supervises Residence Hall Directors, serves on various student life committees and implements several departmental initiatives, including the ACCESS Program, Living Learning Communities, Freshman and Upperclassman Year Experience.

This position is designed for a regular evening and weekend work schedule. This employee serves as the department's emergency and duty coordinator in an "on-call" duty coverage rotation year-round. Some travel is also required.

Qualifications: Master's degree in Social Work, Student Personnel Services, Student Development, Education or a related field and two years of professional experience in student affairs in higher education is required. Preferred qualifications include: experience in residence hall management, supervising Residence Life programs, leadership training, student and community development and administrative processes and experience and proficiency in learning communities and special interest housing. Candidate must possess strong organizational skills; demonstrate a commitment to working collaboratively with a culturally diverse community; and have excellent oral and written communication skills.

Candidacy review begins immediately and continues until appointment is made. Please submit your cover letter, resume/CV and contact information for three professional references. Official transcripts are required prior to the starting date of employment.

Attention current Kean University employees (including part-time Student Assistants, Graduate Assistants, Academic Specialists and Adjuncts): Please apply via the internal career site to ensure consideration as an internal candidate.
