Workplace Culture

NAU aims to be the nation's preeminent engine of opportunity, vehicle of economic mobility, and driver of social impact by delivering equitable postsecondary value in Arizona and beyond.

Special Information

This position is eligible for on-site, hybrid, or remote work.

- On-site work requires the incumbent to complete their work primarily at an NAU site, campus, or facility with or without accommodation. Opportunities for remote work are rare.
- Hybrid work allows the incumbent to complete their work at both an NAU site, campus, or facility and at a non-centralized site with or without accommodation.
- Remote work allows the incumbent to complete their work at a location other than an NAU site, campus, or facility with or without accommodation. The incumbent may occasionally work in a shared site, but primarily will work elsewhere.

Job Description

The demand for relevant and timely communications and the dependency on Advancement | Foundation Communications to serve as a lead revenue-generator and brand ambassador for NAU is more critical than ever before. The Advancement Communications Assistant Director will help lead the development and execution of alumni and donor integrated, strategic, audience-centric, complementary, and coordinated (ISACC) communications.

This position leads multi-channel Alumni Engagement campaigns including the publication of the biannual Pine alumni magazine. The division's engagement, acquisition, retention, and fundraising goals are highly dependent upon personalized, engaging, and relevant content that this position is responsible to generate. NAU is in the quiet phase of its Comprehensive Campaign and this position leads and manages the development and strategy for multi-channel Comprehensive Campaign communications. This position oversees fundraising campaign communication industry trends and best practices to inform strategic fundraising and engagement communications. Through regular communication and partnership, this position ensures a sustainable and growing fundraising pipeline for the NAU Foundation while fostering enhanced engagement among the Lumberjack community.

This position reports directly to the Director of Communications within Advancement | Foundation.

Background Information

This position has been identified as a safety/security sensitive position. Therefore, per AZ Revised Statute, Northern Arizona University requires satisfactory results for the following: a criminal background investigation, employment history investigation, degree verification (in some cases) and fingerprinting. If you are applying for a job that requires a CDL, you will be required to register with the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration Drug & Alcohol Clearinghouse and adhere to the clearinghouse requirements. Additionally, as an employer in the state of Arizona, NAU is required to participate in the federal E-Verify program that assists employers with verifying new employees' right to work in the United States. Finally, each year Northern Arizona University releases an Annual Security Report. The report is a result of a federal law known as the Clery Act. The report includes Clery reportable crime statistics for the three most recent completed calendar years and discloses procedures, practices and programs NAU uses to keep students and employees safe including how to report crimes or other emergencies occurring on campus. In addition, the Fire Safety Report is combined with the Annual Security Report for the NAU Flagstaff Mountain Campus as this campus has on-campus student housing. This report discloses fire safety policies and procedures related to on-campus student housing and statistics for fires that occurred in those facilities. If you would like a free paper copy of the report, please contact the NAUPD Records Department at (928) 523-8884 or by visiting the department at 525 E. Pine Knoll Drive in Flagstaff.
