Job Description

The College of Education is excited to announce the recruitment for the Assistant Director of Student Services within the EAGLES program. This role is responsible for supporting student success and growth while upholding the program's mission. This role involves designing and implementing course curricula, teaching select courses, and overseeing the WINGS peer mentor organization. The Assistant Director strengthens campus partnerships, enhances student support services, and manages students' personal and social development. They supervise Instruction Coordinators, contribute to strategic planning, and ensure compliance with student data management. Additionally, they oversee key student transition programs like orientation and Summer Bridge Camp, ensure accommodations are in place, and assist with marketing and outreach to promote the program.

Auburn University is more than just an institution; it's a vibrant community where real people come together to make a difference. Our commitment to students, employees, communities, and our world runs deep, and it's reflected in every corner of our campus and beyond.
