program consisting of 22 chapters, 3 governing bodies (IFC, SPC, and MGC), and affiliated honor societies (Order of Omega). The Assistant Director has budgetary, compliance, student leadership development, and event and facilities management responsibilities.

Responsibilities:

Advisement and Management

- Serve as the advisor to 22 social fraternities and sororities, in addition to the Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, and the Multicultural Greek Council
- Develop, implement, maintain, and evaluate all aspects of a comprehensive fraternity and sorority program in alignment with University and Student Affairs strategic initiatives
- Implement regular advising meetings with all chapters and implement an accreditation and scorecard rating system to support their performance and operations.
- Work in collaboration with the Office of Residential and Dining Services to manage off-campus residential facilities that are both owned by Stevens or privately owned, including but not limited to the oversight of city laws, neighbor complaints, work orders, billing, and capital improvements
- Oversee an annual operating budget for FSL programs and manage expenses
- Assess student retention through engagement, persistence, and graduation analysis
- Serve as the main liaison to campus, regional, and national fraternity and sorority advisors and staff, especially to the national offices of NPC and the NIC
- Establish and maintain productive relationships with chapter alumni, alumnae, and faculty advisers
- Support the house corporation boards through continued communications, programming, and project development

Education and Programs

- Provide guidance and oversight of the development of leadership programs specific to the Fraternity & Sorority Life community, including leadership development and training, new member education, annual accreditation, bystander intervention, and risk management training

Implement educational programs around topics including but not limited to hazing, social justice and inclusion, consent and sexual violence, and alcohol

- Facilitate group training and meetings with the chapter inclusion representatives to implement anti-oppression and inclusive practices within the community.
- Oversee fraternity and sorority recruitment and intake, in accordance with institutional and national organizational guidelines
- Provide support for awards of excellence to the fraternity and sorority chapters and members in collaboration with the Undergraduate Awards Ceremony.
- Support students in their attendance at regional and national conferences, specifically at the Northeast Greek Leadership Association (NGLA) conference

Code of Conduct

- Ensure compliance with University policies and procedures as well as adherence to local, state, and federal laws by providing regular communication, resources, and trainings with the Greek community
- Serve as a conduct officer for violations of the Student Code of Conduct

Supervision

- Provide administrative direction and direct supervision to one Graduate Coordinator for Fraternity and Sorority Life who will provide assistance with FSL programs, advisement of the Interfraternity Council and Order of Omega, and general chapter advisement

Other Areas of Responsibility

- Assist with the development and implementation of first-year orientation and pre-orientation programs
- Assist with the creation and implementation of additional program development in alignment with the mission of Student Affairs and with the institution's comprehensive strategic plan
- Represent Stevens at regional and national conferences
- Provide evening and weekend coverage of events as needed

Characteristics of the Successful Candidate

Familiarity with best practices and resources regarding the support and development of fraternity and sorority life, including multicultural organizations; a track record of creative and effective leadership training/programming directed to students, as well as alumni advisers and volunteers; and a collaborative management approach are essential to success.

Demonstrated ability to develop and implement risk management and prevention strategies; focused attention on recruitment and expansion for emerging populations; ability to support residential communities. Excellent organizational skills; strong written and oral communication ability; superior relationship-building skills to relate effectively with a wide range of constituents, including students, campus colleagues, alumni, parents, and local community representatives; demonstrated problem-solving and decision-making abilities; and an unwavering commitment to diversity and equity. Must ensure the efficacy of all programs, support services, policies, and education related to fraternities and sororities on campus in support of established learning outcomes.

Importantly, the successful candidate must have the capability to serve as a role model for our students and demonstrate a true passion for the greater Fraternity and Sorority community. This person must be committed to move the needle forward within this functional area.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in Higher Education Administration, Student Personnel Administration, or related field
- 2-3 years of experience in student affairs
- Prior experience advising social Greek letter organizations
- Ability to work with a diverse student population and develop rapport with students
- Experience advising student organizations and supervising student staff is preferred
- Knowledge of relevant research literature on the development of college students, leadership, risk management, organizational development and ability to implement research and develop new programs
- Experience analyzing and collecting data
- Demonstrates clear organization skills, effective oral and written communication skills and leadership capabilities
