Position Summary:

Saint Martin's University invites applications and nominations for the position of Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs (VPAA). This is a rare opportunity to join a thriving liberal arts institution at a moment of great momentum and promise. The Provost and VPAA will serve as the chief academic officer, providing visionary leadership and strategic direction to advance the University's academic mission in alignment with its Catholic, Benedictine tradition.

The Provost and VPAA will report directly to the University President, William Brownsberger, S.T.D., who began his tenure in July 2024. Under Dr. Brownsberger's leadership, Saint Martin's has embraced a renewed sense of purpose and optimism. The University is on a strong trajectory in its commitment to delivering a transformative Benedictine educational experience that equips students for lives of faith, service and reason.

EEO/AA Policy

The principles of the Catholic Benedictine tradition, equal employment opportunity, and nondiscrimination are fundamental to the mission, goals, and objectives of Saint Martin's University. The University does not discriminate in employment or in the delivery or administration of its educational programs, policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic or other University programs on the basis of sex, sexual orientation, race, color, religion (except as a bona fide occupational qualification for certain select positions), marital status, national or ethnic origin, military or veteran status, age, or disability. Equal opportunity in employment is governed by a variety of federal laws. The major applicable federal laws are Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, Rehabilitation Act, Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Equal Pay Act, and VEVRAA. Collectively, these laws prohibit discrimination in all terms and conditions of employment - including hiring, compensation, training, promotion, and termination - based on race/ethnicity, color, national origin, sex, disability, veteran's status, and age. The majority of these laws are enforced by the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, frequently known as the EEOC.
