Job Summary

The Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences is responsible for supervising and directing the teaching, research and service missions of the College. The Dean makes decisions or recommendations regarding budget, curricula, degree offerings, faculty and student recruiting, faculty development/tenure and promotion, fundraising, long-range strategic planning, matters of academic quality, promotion of College interests, research planning, and student mentoring.

The Dean oversees a vibrant academic community with thirty-six undergraduate and graduate degree programs that span the visual and performing arts, the sciences and mathematics, and the humanities and social sciences. The College is home to the John E. Conner Museum and over 250 faculty and staff. The College of Arts and Sciences houses seven nationally accredited programs and generates almost 60 percent of all semester credit hours for the university. The College of Arts and Sciences is unique in offering students a broad-based, liberal arts education transmitting a core of knowledge and
