Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) seeks an accomplished, creative, values-driven leader with a demonstrated track record of success and visionary leadership to serve as the next Vice President and General Counsel. The General Counsel serves as a thoughtful strategic leader across the university and is a member of the President's cabinet reporting directly to the President of WPI. The General Counsel serves as a confidential advisor to the President, the Board Chair, and the administration on a wide range of legal and policy matters and is responsible for ensuring the highest quality of legal services including managing WPI's legal affairs, board governance, enterprise risk management, and institutional insurance functions.

JOB DESCRIPTION

As WPI's Chief Legal Officer, the General Counsel:

- Provides guidance on WPI's governance structure, corporation by-laws, organizational structures and decision-making. Creates and updates WPI policies and procedures, the governance responsibilities of members of the WPI community, and the authority of members of the WPI community to act on behalf of the University, including signing authority.
- Is responsible for managing litigation and other disputes to which WPI is a party, including government investigations and enforcement actions, employment disputes, contract and business disputes, and intellectual property disputes.
- Works to prevent litigation and to resolve disputes before legal proceedings commence, whether through informal means or through formal forms of alternative dispute resolutions, such as mediation and arbitration. Responds to and facilitates the production of documents or witnesses in response to subpoenas, legal demands, third-party requests and other legal processes.
- Works closely with WPI's Talent and Inclusion Division and with the Provost, Vice Presidents, Deans and Departments Heads to provide advice on laws, regulations, WPI administrative policies and the Faculty Handbook. This includes support on issues relating to internal investigations, academic freedom and freedom of speech and expression, complaints of discrimination, disability accommodation, leaves of absence, employee and faculty conduct, hirings, collective bargaining and other union matters, separations, wage and hour matters, retirement, immigration, and other issues. Provides legal advice to faculty and staff in conjunction with WPI's educational programs and activities, facilities use, sponsorship and event agreements, and fee for service activities. Helps develop and present educational training for supervisors and employees on these subjects.
- Advises WPI on a broad range of issues relating to student life, including in the areas of student conduct, Title IX compliance, privacy, policy development, residential life, academic affairs, student financial services, admissions, and student activities. Works closely with the Provost, academic deans, student affairs staff, Title IX coordinators, and other administrators to solve problems, prevent and resolve disputes and ensure compliance with relevant laws, regulations and policies impacting student life at WPI. Serves on committees and task forces charged with addressing student issues.

- Provides legal advice and support in connection with research administration and compliance. Works in conjunction with the Office of the Vice President and Vice Provost for Research and Innovation and the Office of Technology Commercialization. Helps ensure compliance with laws, WPI policies and guidelines in the performance of academic research. Areas of practice include sponsored research, industry collaboration, material transfer agreements, licenses, export control and conflicts of interest.
- Offers legal guidance and support for WPI's diverse international initiatives, including negotiating agreements with foreign sponsors and partners, as well as addressing various operational issues related to these activities.
- Engages and oversees outside counsel to represent WPI in connection with administrative proceedings before various government agencies, including the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination and the Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Education.
- Anticipates issues and risks and coordinates risk management activities. Communicates pertinent information to appropriate parties.
- Assists clients in understanding privacy laws, such as FERPA, HIPAA, GDPR, PIPL, as well as WPI's policies and procedures concerning privacy.

QUALIFICATIONS AND CHARACTERISTICS:

- A commitment to higher education and an understanding of the legal issues faced by universities.
- Deep knowledge and experience in employment and higher education laws, policies, and governance matters.
- Good understanding of shared governance, risk management, and compliance.
- Experience in providing counsel on student affairs and academic affairs issues.
- Substantial experience as a practicing attorney in a sophisticated environment such as a large law firm, government agency, university, or non-profit or business corporation.
- Proven success in providing legal guidance in the context of complex organizations and a deeply held commitment to, and belief in, the value of collaborative decision-making.
- Experience in managing controversial and/or high-profile issues.
- Ability to work collaboratively, and to communicate effectively, with multiple and diverse constituencies, such as faculty, staff, students, corporate partners, community leaders, the public,
