This position serves in the West Central region and includes Choctaw, Dallas, Greene, Hale, Marengo, Perry, Pickens, Sumter, Tuscaloosa, and Wilcox counties.

Essential Functions

- Provide visionary leadership and direct supervision to County Extension Directors and co-supervision of Extension Agents. Foster a culture of collaboration, accountability, and continuous improvement by providing input and assistance to State Program Leaders, Extension Agents, and other employees within the assigned regions.
- Create a supportive work environment by addressing employee needs, resolving conflicts, and promoting professional growth.
- Work with County Extension Directors to strengthen relationships with county commissions, community organizations, and stakeholders to enhance program impact and visibility.
- Guide regional planning, implementation, and evaluation of Extension programs that address local and statewide challenges.
- Leads program planning process within the region to include development of advisory committees and councils, annual needs assessments, plan-of-work development, implementation, and reporting.
- Support teams in identifying and securing funding through grants, contracts, public appropriations, and other revenue streams.
- Oversee compliance, budgeting, and administrative functions in coordination with ACES business offices.
- Serve as the first level reviewer of the county Civil Rights plans and annual Civil Rights desk reviews and participates in conducting internal Civil Rights reviews.
- Encourage the use of technology, social media, and digital tools to expand outreach and engagement.
