We are looking for applicants who reflect California's diversity and want to be part of an inclusive, equity-focused community that views education as a matter of social justice. Please consider whether your values align with our Guiding Values and Principles, Principles of Community, and Strategic Plan.

At UC Berkeley, we believe that learning is a fundamental part of working, and provide space for supportive colleague communities via numerous employee resource groups (staff organizations). Our goal is for everyone on the Berkeley campus to feel supported and equipped to realize their full potential. We actively support this by providing all of our full-time staff employees with at least 80 hours (10 days) of paid time per year to engage in professional development activities. Departmental Overview

The Division of Academic Planning led by the Vice Provost for Academic Planning (VPAP) fosters planning and assessment that supports the strategic academic direction of the UC Berkeley campus, stewards space in university facilities, facilitates global engagement, and supports international students and scholars through its five core divisional units: Academic Program Reviews (APR), Berkeley International Office (BIO), Global Engagement Office (GEO), New Academic Ventures Berkeley (NAV-B), and Space Planning. In fulfilling these goals, VPAP collaborates closely with the schools, colleges, departments, and organizations across the campus, looking for synergies across organizational and disciplinary boundaries, and supporting the growth and development of emerging academic disciplines.

Position Summary

The Assistant Vice Provost and Chief of Staff (AVP/COS) serves as a senior advisor and thought partner to the Vice Provost for Academic Planning (VPAP) who also serves as the campus Senior International Officer (SIO), supporting the full range of VPAP responsibilities and representing VPAP on a variety of matters with internal and external constituents. The AVP/COS provides strategic guidance, advising, and decision-making on behalf of the VPAP, relative to academic and resource planning, short- and long-range policy development, communications, and high-level analyses of new program development. The AVP/COS develops collaborative relationships with a broad range of offices, internal and external to UC Berkeley, to support the VPAP's priorities. The AVP/COS routinely manages sensitive and confidential matters and develops solutions on a wide range of issues on the VPAP's behalf in a neutral and consistent manner.

In addition to executive advising, the AVP/COS manages eight direct reports spanning the VPAP immediate office and the divisional units mentioned above, that steward critical campus operations and priorities. The AVP/COS plays a pivotal role in advising the VPAP with respect to the organizational resources required to implement these functions, and in managing the immediate office and coordinating administrative activity within the VPAP's portfolio, with an eye toward supporting a highly professional, proactive, and responsive staff while ensuring that resources across the Division are allocated in alignment with the VPAP's strategic priorities.

As a direct report to the VPAP, the AVP/COS works closely with senior staff and academic leaders across the campus, with a focus on key institutional initiatives that span organizational boundaries. The AVP/COS works collaboratively with senior staff to translate broad directions into concrete goals and accomplishments, moving agendas forward mindfully and resourcefully.

Application Review Date

This position will remain posted for a minimum of 14 calendar days. The department will begin reviewing applications on or after Monday, June 30, 2025. Applications submitted after this date may still be considered, though priority will be given to those received by the review date.

Responsibilities

Executive Advising

- Interact with senior staff and faculty leadership to advance divisional and campus priorities.
- Work closely with the offices of the Chancellor, Executive Vice Chancellor & Provost, members of the cabinet, Academic Senate, Deans, associate cabinet, chief administrative officers (CAOs), and others to ensure alignment of all strategic initiatives affecting space, academic planning, new academic initiatives, global engagement, and international student and scholar services.
