Program Leadership & Compliance

- Serve as the PI and ensure full implementation of the grant in alignment with federal regulations, TRIO legislation, and institutional policy.
- Interpret and apply McNair statutes, eligibility criteria, and allowable cost guidelines.
- Lead program planning, compliance tracking, and internal/external evaluations.
- Ensure timely progress toward stated objectives and reporting deadlines.

Administrative & Fiscal Oversight

- Oversee budget operations, ensuring compliance with federal and institutional policies.
- Maintain documentation of all expenditures and services.
- Prepare and submit the Annual Performance Report (APR) and other required reports.
- Support long-term program sustainability through strategic planning and recompetition preparation.

Supervision & Staff Development

- Recruit, train, supervise, and evaluate staff and student workers.
- Provide leadership that fosters high-impact practices and collaborative team culture.
- Delegate responsibilities and ensure accountability in recruitment, data management, and program delivery.

Student Development & Programming

- Oversee recruitment, selection, and verification of eligible participants.
- Manage academic-year and summer programming, including research, mentorship, and graduate school preparation.
- Provide guidance on graduate admissions, funding (fellowships, assistantships), and career pathways.
- Track student progress and outcomes to ensure effectiveness.
- Offer opportunities for scholarly, cultural, and professional enrichment.

Partnerships, Outreach & Communication

- Build and maintain relationships with faculty mentors, graduate programs, and institutional partners.
- Increase program visibility through events, presentations, and marketing.
