Job Description

The Office of Advising Administration guides undergraduate students through academic challenges and choices, oversees the administration of professional advising for ODU's main campus, and partners with students to support them in achieving their educational goals.

This position advises prospective and current transfer students; interprets policies and procedures regarding admissions requirements, major exploration, transfer agreements and academic requirements; and manages the daily operations of the Transfer Center.

This position also serves as the main ODU POC for the Transfer VA project, assists with other transfer related projects, and in absence of the Director, represents Transfer Initiatives and the Transfer Center in all University and community events, meetings and functions, as needed.
